

Patient: Maya Rao, 54-year-old female

Admission Date: 2026-01-10

Discharge Date: 2026-01-13

Principal Diagnosis: Community acquired pneumonia

Secondary Diagnoses: Type 2 diabetes mellitus; hypertension

Allergies: No known drug allergies

Hospital Course: Patient admitted with fever, productive cough, and hypoxia. Chest X-ray showed right lower zone infiltrate. Treated with IV antibiotics, oxygen, and bronchodilator support. Oxygen requirement resolved by discharge.

Procedures: Chest X-ray; IV cannulization

Admission Medications: Metformin 500MG BD; Amlodipine 5MG OD

Advice on Discharge:

TAB AMOXICILLIN 500MG TDS 5 DAYS

TAB METFORMIN 500MG BD 30 DAYS

TAB AMLODIPINE 5MG OD 30 DAYS

TAB PANTOPRAZOLE 40MG OD 7 DAYS

Follow-up Instructions: Review with physician in 7 days. Return earlier for fever, breathlessness, chest pain, or persistent vomiting.

Pending Results: None documented.

Discharge Condition: Hemodynamically stable, maintaining saturation on room air.